One in three of us will get cancer. It's something that affects us all. Our goal is to reach everyone affected by cancer that wants and needs us. Together we can make it happen. Thank you so much for your support.

We are all affected by cancer. We can all help. We are Macmillan.

Macmillan supporters gave us an amazing gift – our Macmillan nurse Wendy. And through her they gave us hope at the most desperate time of our lives.

Tony Green,
Amy's Dad.

Help us be there to relieve people's fears by answering their questions, through our nurses as well as trained advisers on our helplines.

Help our counselors and psychologists support anyone living with cancer, whether they're coping with depression or anxiety or they simply need someone to talk to.

Help us be there for the 2 million people who are living with cancer in the UK today.
